

Linda Fry Poverman

Artist Statement

Art nourishes the soul.

I love teaching drawing.

Background

Linda has spent nearly all of her life in the arts. She began with an emphasis in photography, working with modern and historical processes. Currently very interested in collage and drawing, she has worked in museums, managed a gallery and taught art in the public school system. She is an advisory board member for the children's literacy non-profit, Stories That Soar!

Education

BFA in Studio Art, California State University, Fresno, CA.
Post-BA in Art Education, University of Arizona.
