The Indigo Show

CALL FOR ARTISTS: Drawing Studio Members

Submission Deadline: February 1, 2019

The Indigo Show is an exhibition that uses indigo as a shape-shifting cultural expression.

Indigo is more than a hue. Its essence is drawn from its history and its alchemy. With its roots in India, indigo is evident in the documentation of the Pharaohs in ancient Egypt, the royal courts in Nigeria, and the Tuareg nomads of the Sahara. It has been used as medicine, artist paint, and cosmetic embellishment. Indigo is the muse of the artist.

The Indigo Show is a group exhibition that will be displayed at The Drawing Studio in Tucson, AZ beginning March 1 and ending March 31, 2019. This show will highlight the skills of Drawing Studio members, working in a variety of media.

Please follow the guidelines and information presented below:

- All mediums of artwork will be considered.
- All 2D artwork must be ready to hang.
- Please only submit work that embodies the theme of the show. The color indigo must be strongly represented in the artwork.
- Submit jpegs of completed work for review no later than Friday, Feb. 1, 2019.
- No more than 3 pieces should be submitted for consideration. There is no fee to submit.
- Submissions must include the name of the piece, dimensions, medium, and sale price.
- Artists must be prepared to drop off their work at The Drawing Studio the week of February 18th. A schedule of drop off dates and times will be provided if your work is selected.
- There will be a 40% fee on all sales of work generated during the show.

Entries due: February 1, 2019
Notice of acceptance: February 6, 2019
Opening Reception: March 1, 2019
Exhibition Dates: March 1-31, 2019

Email submissions and/or questions to:
Jessica Kranz
jessica@thedrawingstudio.org